Birinyi Associates, Inc. is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser and not as a broker-dealer. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand these differences.

Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

- We offer investment advisory services to retail investors through separate accounts. We offer clients investment management on a discretionary basis. We employ a variety of investment strategies when constructing a client’s portfolio.
- In a discretionary investment management arrangement, you place assets in a separate account and give us full discretion to invest those assets, subject to any guidelines, limitations or special instructions you specify in your agreement with us.
- In addition to the investment advisory services described above, we also provide subscribers with investment information and market analysis on a periodic basis. For an additional fee, we offer our newsletter as well as our Mini-Institutional service, which provides subscribers with our most sophisticated and in-depth research on a daily basis and access to our archive of topical studies, research reports, and the monthly newsletter. We also offer an institutional research service.
- We offer continuous monitoring of accounts as part of our standard services, with reviews at least monthly and otherwise as market conditions or fiduciary responsibilities dictate—as may be agreed with each client.
- As a condition for starting and maintaining a relationship, we generally impose a minimum portfolio size of $2,000,000 (subject to certain exceptions).

Example questions you might ask us to learn more:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

- Our fees are generally based on a percentage of assets we manage or fixed fees.
- Our asset-based investment management fees are generally deducted every six months, in advance, meaning that we debit client accounts directly based on the value of the client account at the start of each six month period. The more assets you have in your account, the more you will pay in fees, and we may therefore have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account.
- A subscription to our newsletter generally costs $22.99 per month or $225 per year. Subscribers to our Mini-Institutional service generally pay either $150 per month, $750 for six months or $1,500 for one year. The institutional service is offered at various prices depending on the level of interaction.
- You will also pay various other fees and expenses to others with respect to your account, including all custodial fees, brokerage commissions, clearing fees, interest and withholding or transfer taxes incurred in connection with trading for your separate account, and fees and expenses of mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, money market funds and third-party investment managers, as may be applicable to you.

- You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

- When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

  - Notwithstanding that we currently employ a similar or substantially similar investment strategy on behalf of all of our clients and will generally invest and trade on a pari passu basis, certain differences in the specific investment strategies employed may result in non-pari passu treatment of specific accounts with respect to some or all of their investment and trading activities.
